

2019

Shakespeare After Prison

Lesley Currier

Dameion Brown

Survey: Let us know how this paper benefits you.

Follow this and additional works at: <https://scholar.dominican.edu/community-engagement-theme>

 Part of the Theatre and Performance Studies Commons

---

Currier, Lesley and Brown, Dameion, "Shakespeare After Prison" (2019). Community Engagement Theme. 15.
<https://scholar.dominican.edu/community-engagement-theme/DemocracyEquity2018-2019/Events2018-2019/15>

This Event is brought to you for free and open access by the Center for University Partnerships and Community and Engagement at Dominican Scholar. It has been accepted for inclusion in Community Engagement Theme by an authorized administrator of Dominican Scholar. For more information, please contact michael.pujals@dominican.edu.

& DEMOCRACY & EQUITY

SHAKESPEARE AFTER PRISON

Join us for a talk and interactive workshop with Lesley Currier, Managing Director of the Marin Shakespeare Company, and Dameion Brown, artist in residence, to learn more about Shakespeare for Social Justice, an arts-in-corrections program that brings the restorative power of the performing arts to incarcerated men and women in Northern California Prisons. After 23 years in Solano State Prison and recently a recipient of the Bay Area Theatre Critics Circle's Award for his performance in Othello, Brown will share how theater fosters healthy self expression, reduces stress, and breaks down social barriers for those currently in prison and those reintegrating into the community after imprisonment. Also, Dominican students, who participated in service-learning opportunities with the incarcerated and previously incarcerated, will share their insights with the campus community.

When: Tuesday, April 30, 3:00 - 4:30pm

Where: Angelico Concert Hall