AN UNTITLED PANTOUM

Allyssa Miranda

The woman walked down the lane
with barely a care,
letting the path lead her onwards,
wondering where she would go.

With barely a care
the farmer saw his wife leave,
wondering where she would go
with her bags barely full.

The farmer saw his wife leave.
She never went back there again
though her bags were barely full.
The world was full of possibilities.

She never went back there again,
letting the path lead her onwards.
The world was full of possibilities
and the woman walked down the lane.
