STEADFAST LOVE

Brittany Lyons

There may not be a man, but there is a presence.

He may not be able to hold my hand, but he will still lead me to the promised land.

I may not be perfect, but he loves me just as much for my flaws.

I can never love him as he loves me, but that's something that has to be.

I may not be able to cry on a man's shoulder, but I can always show him my tears.

I can never be perfect or give up my life like his was given for me, but I can devote myself to he who was devoted to me.

I will not worry for myself because he will always carry me.
