Modern Seashell

Brittany Lyons

The square is the founding place.
The seashell that lets the dear voice be heard.
Miles and years the square eats them all.
A magic mirror that transports me to you.

The personification of faith.
I cannot see but I know you are there, thankfully the voice helps.
Your voice has no compare
I can imagine a hug or a smirk.

Stop the clocks and hold back the tide.
There is something I must confide.
Magic is being performed thus this little box has been transformed.
