There It Goes Again

Liang Somers

Who should I be looking at?
Where should my eyes gaze?
I doubt it should be at you, but
There it goes again

Maybe I don't understand it all
Though my heart still twists
When your voice gets excited, but
There it goes again

With a frown like a real grin
I'm sure something is wrong
Of course it's not me, but
There it goes again

I've been told jealousy is painful
But what of the thoughts before?
You seem to forget I'm here, but
There it goes again

There it goes again
And again
And again
And again
My chest gets tight
And my fists clench
There it goes again

Stop talking for just a moment
Because I care more than I thought
You gave too much for me to let go, so
There it goes again
