Glove

By Michael Asare-Aboagye

As I take a harmless glass my heart will keep beating. might I be repeating mistakes of the past?
like my uncle, his father should I even bother to sip? Well, I do.
I was hardly convinced but it worries me since the glove fits right on you.
I'm frightened it might fit me too.

No way. And besides, do my work nine to five everyday so then why should I stay home tonight?
dizzy walls back and forth but I'm sober of course and now I'm on a roll and I argue and vomit but still I can promise that I'm in control...
