Millennial Melancholy

Olivia McKendrick

In this all-consuming cyber world lacking links is scary
No phone No tube No Internet
No magic pleasure fairy
Just me myself is what I get
Jaw-locked jitters creep
Quaking hands to forehead met
Panic striking deep
Pining for a rapid fix
Praying not to dwell
Friends, foes and Netflix
Have a thirst to quell

The mind is asking
What to do?
However do we wean?
How long are we to hold our breath?
How long are we to grieve?
I know not yet this yearning want
A need I cannot say
Applications lost will always haunt
My nights into my days
