When It's Never Enough

Brittney La Noire

The blade slid down his tongue.
The sweet nectar of the human body
Slithered down his throat.

His lust for her sanguine beauty
Grew stronger with every beat of her heart.
It was a euphoria he could never satisfy.

The curdling screams, like a harmony.
Her wide eyes full of the fear of his passion.
He treasured the struggle.

Just one more drop, one more slice,
Until she lies on the ground,
Colder than the frosty air.

Her last breath through her departed lips.
The beat decreased,
And so did his interest.
