ATTACHED TO ME

Jessica Guda

If I flew away from you
And left you
Would I stay

In your thoughts
And in your dreams?
Would I help you to be brave?

Or would removal
From you bring
Sorrow to sting your veins?

Could I not leave
To help you breathe,
So that in my absence you could see?

For I must fly,
It's what we do.
The sky is what we need.

But how do I move
When there you stand
Just holding onto me?

Like the bird is how I'll be
My reflection keeping
Under me.

So I will move,
But be assured,
You will stay attached to me.
